This wine was produced exclusively from Sangiovese Grosso grapes from the Vigna del Capannino, a vineyard located on the southwest slope of the estate overlooking Monteriggioni. That vineyard represents the best expression of our 2010. Alcoholic fermentation and a long maceration on the skins lasted about 25 days. This wine was aged partly in “genius loci”, the spirit of the place. The grapes were manually harvested between the 10th and the 15th of October in French oak tonneaux and partly in Slavonian oak barrels for about 24 months, followed by a further refinement in the bottles for about 6 months.

Colour: ruby red, very intense and deep.

Bouquet: very intense and complex, with soft fruity notes of cherry and prune, together with intense and pleasant spicy scents, particularly of tobacco, undergrowth mingled with agreeable balsamic notes.

Taste: very good structure, which combines elegance, full bodied with finesse, well balanced and harmonious to the palate, with a very pleasant taste and sweetness, due to the velvety and ripe tannins. Excellent, it offers a serious long persistent finish on the palate.
