

The Terra Degli Dei family has been cultivating wines since the mid-1980s. The winery is situated in the medieval village of Torrecuso, which is in the province of Benevento in the Italian region of Campania. The vineyards are exposed to the sun, lending themselves well to great growing production. Together, the family along with extended family manage and operate the everyday tasks in the vineyards and in the cellar.

AGLIANICO

Classification:

Red wine - Denominazione di Origine Protetta (DOP)

Production zone:

Sannio area

Grape variety:

100% Aglianico

Alcohol:

13% - 14%

Harvest:

Grapes are picked during the end of October.

Refinement:

Wine ages in oak and small French oak for 10-12 months. Then it is bottled 2 years after harvest.

Characteristics:

This wine has a purple color with ruby red highlights. It offers pronounced and intense aromas of ripen red fruit along with vanilla and smoky notes. Soft and velvety tannins provide for an elegant medium body. The finish is long, vibrant and balanced.

Serving Suggestions:

Pairs perfectly with first courses. Enjoy it with pastas and various red and white meat dishes. Should be served between 60-65° F.

